Lois,

The two star general who is Mathy's equivalent is new to the position and is not up to speed. USACE is hesitant to have Mathy call him "cold" so they would need to scramble to get him up to speed.

Jim Woolford's counterpart, Karen Baker, is on vacation right now but can make herself available to talk to Mathy if need be. She would probably be able to direct the question or provide recommendations more appropriately.

Jim – what do you think?

Kate- apparently mathy wants to keep all options on the table as far as whom could conduct independent review of the Animas situation. So, he would like to have a USACE contact...not clear to me if he wants to have a convo directly with whomever that might be or if he just wants to have a name in mind. So, could you weigh in with whomever you deal with in your IAG as well as a possible higher-up that Mathy could contact?

Thanks!
